

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
NORTHERN DISTRICT OF CALIFORNIA

CYMEYON V. HILL,
Plaintiff,

v.

DR. MANN, et al.,
Defendants.

Case No. 24-cv-02740-YGR (PR)

ORDER OF PARTIAL DISMISSAL AND SERVICE

I. INTRODUCTION

Plaintiff, a civil detainee currently being held in custody at Napa State Hospital (“NSH”), filed a pro se civil rights complaint pursuant to 42 U.S.C. § 1983. Venue is proper because the events giving rise to the claim is alleged to have occurred in NSH, which is located in this judicial district. See 28 U.S.C. § 1391(b). Plaintiff’s motion for leave to proceed in forma pauperis will be granted in a separate order.

II. DISCUSSION

A. Standard of Review

A federal court must conduct a preliminary screening in any case in which a prisoner seeks redress from a governmental entity or officer or employee of a governmental entity. 28 U.S.C. § 1915A(a). In its review, the court must identify any cognizable claims and dismiss any claims that are frivolous, malicious, fail to state a claim upon which relief may be granted or seek monetary relief from a defendant who is immune from such relief. Id. § 1915A(b)(1), (2). Pro se

<sup>1</sup> Because plaintiff’s penmanship is difficult to decipher, the Clerk of the Court incorrectly listed Dr. Dorique as “Dr. Norique.” However, the correct spelling of this defendant’s name is “Dorique.” See Dkt. 1 at 2-3.

<sup>2</sup> Page number citations refer to those assigned by the Court’s electronic case management filing system and not those assigned by plaintiff. The Court further notes that pages 2 and 3 of the complaint were switched when they were scanned into the ECF system. See Dkt. 1 at 2-3. Nevertheless, the Court will still refer to the ECF system’s page numbers.

pleadings must be liberally construed. Balistreri v. Pacifica Police Dep't, 901 F.2d 696, 699 (9th Cir. 1988).

To state a claim under 42 U.S.C. § 1983, a plaintiff must allege two essential elements: (1) that a right secured by the Constitution or laws of the United States was violated, and (2) that the alleged violation was committed by a person acting under the color of state law. West v. Atkins, 487 U.S. 42, 48 (1988).

B. Legal Claims

1. First Amendment Claims Against Defendants Mann and Santiagos

Plaintiff, who was civilly committed in 1997 following a plea of not guilty by reason of insanity, alleges the following took place on May 1, 2024. Dkt. 1 at 2. Plaintiff claims that while he was in “Unit T8,” defendants Mann and Santiagos said to plaintiff “we are going to kill you nigger for filing lawsuits and complaints.” Id. Defendant Mann then placed plaintiff on “Risperdal”<sup>3</sup> and “Depakote”<sup>4</sup> and said to him, “I’ll teach you a lesson about filing lawsuits.” Id.

To state a claim for First Amendment retaliation against a government official, a plaintiff must demonstrate that (1) he engaged in constitutionally protected activity; (2) as a result, he was subjected to adverse action by the defendant that would chill a person of ordinary firmness from continuing to engage in the protected activity; and (3) there was a substantial causal relationship between the constitutionally protected activity and the adverse action. Mulligan v. Nichols, 835 F.3d 983, 988 (9th Cir. 2016). Plaintiff has stated a cognizable First Amendment retaliation claim against defendants Mann and Santiagos.

To the extent that plaintiff’s complaint states a claim against defendants Mann and Santiagos of verbal harassment and threats, such a claim is DISMISSED. See Freeman v. Arpaio,

<sup>3</sup> Plaintiff indicates that the medication prescribed by Dr. Mann on May 1, 2024 was called, “Resperadol,” which seems to be incorrectly spelled. Dkt. 1 at 2. Risperidone is the generic name of “Risperdal,” which is “used to treat certain mental/mood disorders (such as schizophrenia, bipolar disorder, irritability associated with autistic disorder).” See <https://www.webmd.com/drugs/2/drug-9846/risperdal-oral/details> (last visited Oct. 8, 2024).

<sup>4</sup> Divalproex is the generic name of “Depakote,” which is used to treat seizure disorders, certain psychiatric conditions (manic phase of bipolar disorder), and to prevent migraine headaches. See <https://www.webmd.com/drugs/2/drug-1788/depakote-oral/details> (last visited Oct. 8, 2024).

125 F.3d 732, 738 (9th Cir. 1997) (Allegations of verbal harassment and abuse fail to state a claim cognizable under 42 U.S.C. § 1983.); see also Gaut v. Sunn, 810 F.2d 923, 925 (9th Cir. 1987) (mere threat does not constitute constitutional wrong, nor do allegations that naked threat was for purpose of denying access to courts compel contrary result).

2. Eighth Amendment Claim Against Defendants Mann and Dorique

Deliberate indifference to serious medical needs presents a cognizable claim for violation of the Eighth Amendment. Estelle v. Gamble, 429 U.S. 97, 104 (1976); McGuckin v. Smith, 974 F.2d 1050, 1059 (9th Cir. 1992); Jones v. Johnson, 781 F.2d 769, 771 (9th Cir. 1986). A determination of “deliberate indifference” involves an examination of two elements: the seriousness of the prisoner’s medical need and the nature of the defendant’s response to that need. McGuckin, 974 F.2d at 1059. A “serious” medical need exists if the failure to treat a prisoner’s condition could result in further significant injury or the “unnecessary and wanton infliction of pain.” Id. (citing Estelle v. Gamble, 429 U.S. at 104). Deliberate indifference may be established if there is a purposeful act or failure to act on the part of the defendant. McGuckin, 974 F.2d at 1060. It is well-known that a claim of medical malpractice or negligence is insufficient to make out a violation of the Eighth Amendment. See Toguchi v. Chung, 391 F.3d 1051, 1060-61 (9th Cir. 2004).

Plaintiff alleges that also on May 1, 2024, after defendant Mann had allegedly placed plaintiff on psychiatric medication in retaliation for filing lawsuits, defendant Mann told plaintiff that defendant Dorique “told [defendant Mann] to place [plaintiff] on ‘Risperdal’ and ‘Depakote,’” which led plaintiff to “suffer[] from blindness, [tardive dyskinesia],<sup>5</sup> severe back pain and hair loss.” Dkt. 1 at 2 (footnote added). Liberally construed, plaintiff’s complaint states a cognizable Eighth Amendment claim against defendants Mann and Dorique.

III. CONCLUSION

For the foregoing reasons, the Court orders as follows:

<sup>5</sup> Plaintiff claims he suffers from “tardia dyskinesia,” which is likely misspelled. Dkt. 1 at 2. He seems to refer to “tardive dyskinesia,” which “causes stiff, jerky movements of your face and body that you can’t control” resulting from “a side effect of antipsychotic medications.” See <https://www.webmd.com/mental-health/tardive-dyskinesia> (last visited Oct. 8, 2024).

1           1.       Plaintiff has stated a cognizable First Amendment retaliation claim against
2 defendants Mann and Santiagos. He has also stated a cognizable Eighth Amendment claim
3 against defendants Mann and Dorique.

4           2.       Plaintiff's claim against defendants Mann and Santiagos of verbal harassment and
5 threats is DISMISSED.

6           3.       The Clerk of the Court shall mail a Notice of Lawsuit and Request for Waiver of 7 Service of Summons, two copies of the Waiver of Service of Summons, a copy of the complaint
8 and all attachments thereto (dkt. 1), and a copy of this Order to the following defendants: Dr.
9 Mann; "Medical Staff Santiagos"; and Dr. Dorique at Napa State Hospital, ATTN:
10 Litigation Coordinator, 2100 Napa Vallejo Hwy., Napa, CA 94558. The Clerk also shall mail
11 a copy of the complaint and a copy of this Order to the State Attorney General's Office in San 12 Francisco. Additionally, the Clerk shall mail a copy of this Order to plaintiff.

13           4.       Defendants are cautioned that Rule 4 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure
14 requires them to cooperate in saving unnecessary costs of service of the summons and complaint.
15 Pursuant to Rule 4, if defendants, after being notified of this action and asked by the Court, on 16 behalf of plaintiff, to waive service of the summons, fail to do so, defendants will be required to 17 bear the cost of such service unless good cause be shown for the failure to sign and return the 18 waiver form. If service is waived, this action will proceed as if defendants had been served on the 19 date that the waiver is filed, except that pursuant to Rule 12(a)(1)(B), defendants will not be 20 required to serve and file an answer before sixty (60) days from the date on which the request for 21 waiver was sent. (This allows a longer time to respond than would be required if formal service of 22 summons is necessary.) Defendants are asked to read the statement set forth at the foot of the 23 waiver form that more completely describes the duties of the parties with regard to waiver of 24 service of the summons. If service is waived after the date provided in the Notice but before
25 defendants personally have been served, the Answer shall be due sixty (60) days from the date on 26 which the request for waiver was sent or twenty (20) days from the date the waiver form is filed,
27 whichever is later.

28           5.       Defendants shall answer the complaint in accordance with the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure. The following briefing schedule shall govern dispositive motions in this action:

a. No later than sixty (60) days from the date their answer is due, defendants shall file a motion for summary judgment or other dispositive motion. The motion must be supported by adequate factual documentation, must conform in all respects to Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 56, and must include as exhibits all records and incident reports stemming from the events at issue. A motion for summary judgment also must be accompanied by a Rand<sup>6</sup> notice so that plaintiff will have fair, timely and adequate notice of what is required of him in order to oppose the motion. Woods v. Carey, 684 F.3d 934, 935 (9th Cir. 2012) (notice requirement set out in Rand must be served concurrently with motion for summary judgment). A motion to dismiss for failure to exhaust available administrative remedies must be accompanied by a similar notice. However, the Court notes that under the new law of the circuit, in the rare event that a failure to exhaust is clear on the face of the complaint, defendants may move for dismissal under Rule 12(b)(6) as opposed to the previous practice of moving under an unenumerated Rule 12(b) motion. Albino v. Baca, 747 F.3d 1162, 1166 (9th Cir. 2014) (overruling Wyatt v. Terhune, 315 F.3d 1108, 1119 (9th Cir. 2003), which held that failure to exhaust available administrative remedies under the Prison Litigation Reform Act, 42 U.S.C. § 1997e(a), should be raised by a defendant as an unenumerated Rule 12(b) motion). Otherwise if a failure to exhaust is not clear on the face of the complaint, defendants must produce evidence proving failure to exhaust in a motion for summary judgment under Rule 56. Id. If undisputed evidence viewed in the light most favorable to plaintiff shows a failure to exhaust, defendants are entitled to summary judgment under Rule 56. Id. But if material facts are disputed, summary judgment should be denied and the district judge rather than a jury should determine the facts in a preliminary proceeding. Id. at 1168.

If defendants are of the opinion that this case cannot be resolved by summary judgment, defendants shall so inform the Court prior to the date the summary judgment motion is due. All papers filed with the Court shall be promptly served on plaintiff.

b. Plaintiff's opposition to the dispositive motion shall be filed with the Court

1 and served on defendants no later than twenty-eight (28) days after the date on which defendants'
2 motion is filed.

3 c. Plaintiff is advised that a motion for summary judgment under Rule 56 of 4 the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure will, if granted, end your case. Rule 56 tells you what you
5 must do in order to oppose a motion for summary judgment. Generally, summary judgment must 6 be granted when there is no genuine issue of material fact—that is, if there is no real dispute about 7 any fact that would affect the result of your case, the party who asked for summary judgment is 8 entitled to judgment as a matter of law, which will end your case. When a party you are suing 9 makes a motion for summary judgment that is properly supported by declarations (or other sworn 10 testimony), you cannot simply rely on what your complaint says. Instead, you must set out
11 specific facts in declarations, depositions, answers to interrogatories, or authenticated documents,
12 as provided in Rule 56(c), that contradicts the facts shown in the defendant's declarations and 13 documents and show that there is a genuine issue of material fact for trial. If you do not submit 14 your own evidence in opposition, summary judgment, if appropriate, may be entered against you.
15 If summary judgment is granted, your case will be dismissed and there will be no trial. Rand, 154
16 F.3d at 962-63.

17 Plaintiff also is advised that—in the rare event that defendants argue that the failure to 18 exhaust is clear on the face of the complaint—a motion to dismiss for failure to exhaust available
19 administrative remedies under 42 U.S.C. § 1997e(a) will, if granted, end your case, albeit without 20 prejudice. To avoid dismissal, you have the right to present any evidence to show that you did
21 exhaust your available administrative remedies before coming to federal court. Such evidence 22 may include: (1) declarations, which are statements signed under penalty of perjury by you or 23 others who have personal knowledge of relevant matters; (2) authenticated documents—
24 documents accompanied by a declaration showing where they came from and why they are 25 authentic, or other sworn papers such as answers to interrogatories or depositions; (3) statements
26 in your complaint insofar as they were made under penalty of perjury and they show that you have 27 personal knowledge of the matters state therein. As mentioned above, in considering a motion to 28 dismiss for failure to exhaust under Rule 12(b)(6) or failure to exhaust in a summary judgment

1 motion under Rule 56, the district judge may hold a preliminary proceeding and decide disputed
2 issues of fact with regard to this portion of the case. Albino, 747 F.3d at 1168.

3 (The notices above do not excuse defendants' obligation to serve similar notices again
4 concurrently with motions to dismiss for failure to exhaust available administrative remedies and
5 motions for summary judgment. Woods, 684 F.3d at 935.)

6 d. Defendants shall file a reply brief no later than fourteen (14) days after the 7 date plaintiff's opposition is filed.

8 e. The motion shall be deemed submitted as of the date the reply brief is due.
9 No hearing will be held on the motion unless the Court so orders at a later date.

10 6. Discovery may be taken in this action in accordance with the Federal Rules of Civil 11 Procedure. Leave of the Court pursuant to Rule 30(a)(2) is hereby granted to defendants to depose
12 plaintiff and any other necessary witnesses confined in prison.

13 7. All communications by plaintiff with the Court must be served on defendants or 14 defendants' counsel, once counsel has been designated, by mailing a true copy of the document to 15 them.

16 8. It is plaintiff's responsibility to prosecute this case. Plaintiff must keep the Court
17 informed of any change of address and must comply with the Court's orders in a timely fashion.
18 Pursuant to Northern District Local Rule 3-11, a party proceeding pro se whose address changes
19 while an action is pending must promptly file a notice of change of address specifying the new 20 address. See L.R. 3-11(a). The Court may dismiss without prejudice a complaint when: (1) mail
21 directed to the pro se party by the Court has been returned to the Court as not deliverable, and 22 (2) the Court fails to receive within sixty days of this return a written communication from the pro
23 se party indicating a current address. See L.R. 3-11(b).

24 9. Upon a showing of good cause, requests for a reasonable extension of time will be 25 granted provided they are filed on or before the deadline they seek to extend.

26 IT IS SO ORDERED.
